About the Author: Benjamin Shultz is a Ph.D. student in Geography at the University of Tennessee. He plans to be a college professor upon finishing his degree. Geography and travel have been interests of his for as long as he can remember. His travel bug has taken him to Costa Rica for a year and Italy for six months, among other shorter trips to different places. He grew up in two rural towns in Kentucky and West Virginia. These experiences, and his geographic research, have made place a central theme in his writing.
